Among the virtues of the month of Muharram is that it contains the day of 'Aashooraa', which falls on its tenth day. 'Aa'ishah, may Allaah be pleased with her, narrated that: "Quraysh (the tribe of the Prophet) as well as the Prophet himself (pbuh) used to fast the day of 'Aashooraa' during the days of Jaahiliyyah (pre-Islamic ignorance). When the Prophet (pbuh) emigrated to Madeenah he continued to fast it and commanded the people to do so. (Bukhaari & Muslim). Also reported, that a man asked the Prophet (pbuh) about the virtues of fasting on the day of 'Aashooraa'; the Prophet (pbuh) replied: "I hope that Allaah will make it a cause to expiate the sins of the previous year." (Muslim). Also, reported that the (pbuh) said: "If I live until next year I will fast the ninth along with the tenth (i.e. of Al-Muharram)." (Muslim) This was said by the Prophet (pbuh) so that his fasting would differ from that of the Jews.
